Filing Fees to Be Set by 20th

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Leon Catlett, state Democratic party chairman, has asked county Democratic committees to set filing fees for county and district offices by Jan. 20.

J. P. "Sonny" Lybrand, party executive secretary, said Catlett's request did not constitute a deadline.

Collision, Blast Block Ship Channel

By LAWRENCE LEE

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) - The freight Christiana smashed into a string of gasoline-laden barges in the Houston Ship Channel today turning the water into a blazing inferno as the volatile fuel exploded in sheets of flame. Two American tourists, the captain's wife and 3-year-old daughter, and 27 officers and crewmen scrambled into the ship's lifeboats and fled through the fiery waters. State police said they had no reports of serious injuries.

The collision occurred about 12:30 a.m. just south of a highway tunnel between the suburbs of Baytown and La Porte, which is 30 miles southeast of Houston. The Christiana, a 372-foot craft of Liberian registry owned by Christiana Shipping Co. of Bermuda, was outbound toward Port Arthur, Tex., when it struck the barges being pushed by the tugboat Barbara Waxler. One barge was empty but the other two bore 30,000 barrels of high octane gasoline which exploded, spraying fire across the chilly waters of Upper Galveston Bay.

Help was quick because rescue units along the heavily industrialized waterway had just finished dealing with and explosion and fire two hours earlier and 12 miles upstream at a Shell Chemical Co. plant. Four men were hurt, one critically, in that unrelated mishap.

Tourists aboard the freighter were Mr. and Mrs. Heber M. Ginterich of York, Pa. They went aboard the Christiana with their car a week ago in Honduras. They planned to debark at New Orleans and drive home.

"I had just gone to my bunk," said Mrs. Ginterich, 62, who was watching the twinkling lights of refineries glide past her cabin window. "They looked just like cities."

While she watched, W.L. Nix, a guard at the channel tunnel, heard the Christiana and the tug hooting at one another. Then they hit.

"I looked out just as everything went up in flames," Nix said.

Five minutes later the first explosion rattled Baytown windows, and in 10 minutes another echoed.

Ginterich, 67, a retired bricklayer, said, "I woke up of my own accord. I just got awake and saw a ball of flame out on the water."

He and his wife joined the ship's all-Greek crew of 28 on deck and entered a lifeboat.

The master of the vessel, Capt. Pete Panagiotou, 41, stayed aboard with the channel pilot sending his wife and young as 13 to fill out their units. The quality of the Red leadership and training is considered to have declined.

Brig. Gen. William R. Desobry, outgoing senior American adviser in the delta, says the South Vietnamese army has the upper hand now.

"The Viet Cong are going down steadily," Desobry told reporters this month. "Pacification has taken hold. There has been significant success. I'll stick my neck out."

If we do our job properly—and we will—the military situation in the delta will be much more favorable in one to two years than it is now.

"In December we killed forces; killed over 2,000 in the delta, the highest ever. We lost 600 killed."

But the ratio of civilians under Viet Cong and government control in the area assigned to two brigades of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division, the Old Reliables, is unchanged. The Viet Cong remain the dominant force in most villages and hamlets, including some adjacent to U.S. strongpoints.

Despite a series of major battles and skirmishes which left more than 3,800 dead by American body count, the Viet Cong main force and guerrilla strength is still estimated by U.S. military men at about 80,000.

Millions of dollars worth of helicopters and armored river boats have been committed to increase mobility, but the 9,000 men of the 2nd and 3rd brigades of the 9th still find that most of the initiative rests with the Communists in the American sectors. In almost every case the Viet Cong continue to pick the time and place of battle.

U.S. officers believe, in short, that the only two American brigades committed to the delta altered the battle equation not at all. This was not unexpected.

daughter Nicole in a lifeboat to safety on a cold and barren jetty.

Sheriff's Lt. Danny Grant said the Christiana glowed cherry red in the fire but the only cargo suffering damage was that stowed on deck.

Grant said a tug which sent up a flare reported, "no survivors," but its information turned out to be erroneous.

When the smoke cleared, the Christiana bore a gash 10 to 15 feet long near the water level in the bow, the tug was intact and two of the barges remained afloat. The third barge was destroyed.

At 3 a.m. crew members and the captain's family rejoined him on the freighter, which headed down the channel for repairs at the island port of Galveston.

Warrant Is Issued for Missing Man

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) - Circuit Judge Henry M. Britt issued a bench warrant Monday for the arrest of John O. Crommons of Hot Springs, who did not show up as scheduled Monday for a habeas corpus hearing.

An order issued Dec. 12 by U.S. District Judge John E. Miller that Crommons either be turned loose in 30 days or given a new trial was expected to be the focal point of the court's action. Miller handed down the order after he said that Crommons had been coerced into entering a plea of guilty to second-degree murder in the 1965 traffic death of Monroe Tiggins of Hot Springs.

Crommons, who was originally charged with first-degree murder, was sentenced to a seven-year prison term. He was free under $1,000 bail.

Miller's order came on a habeas corpus petition filed here in federal court after a similar petition was denied in Circuit Court and upheld by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

G&F Body Denies Extra Cash on Hand

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Hugh Hackler, director of the state Game and Fish Commission, said Monday that Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has asked the commission to spend $1 to $2 million it doesn't have.

Rockefeller revealed Monday he had sent a letter to the chairman of the commission urging that the commission prepare a program for the expenditure of some $4 million it has in accumulated funds.

Rockefeller also wrote Chairman Earnest Hogue that he understood the purchase of new land received top priority.

Hackler said there was only between $2 and $3 million in the fund, and that no priorities had been set for the expenditure of it. Hackler said the commission would develop a long range plan for its use.

Rockefeller questioned whether the funds should be completely used for purchasing more land or "whether additional qualified personnel might not be more desirable."

"Although this is not a matter for planning in the governor's office, as chief executive I am vitally interested in your programs for conservation and wildlife management," Rockefeller wrote.

Doesn't See Info '68 Helping GOP

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Mrs. Elizabeth Westmoreland said Monday she does not know how the television program Info '68 could be helping the Republicans.

Info '68 is a weekly television program sponsored by Leon B. Catlett, the state Democratic party chairman. Mrs. Westmoreland is commentator for the program, which is usually devoted to criticism of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's administration.

The Republican State Committee commended the program and said it "greatly enhances the image of the Republican party through its almost total lack of bias in fact."

"I don't really know how we could be helping them (Republicans)," Mrs. Westmoreland said.

She said the program had publicized a projected state deficit, the "mess" in the state Welfare Department, Rockefeller's absences from his office and other issues she considered flaws in the Republican administration.

Displeasure of the program also has been voiced by some members of Young Democrats Clubs. Mrs. Westmoreland said she wasn't familiar with their criticism but said, "I would be glad to discuss anything with them."

Mrs. Westmoreland said Monday the real point of the program was that Democratic administrations had provided leadership in protecting the state's natural resources. She said this was in contrast to Rockefeller.

She also said she was pointing out that "the national Democrats have done a great deal, too... that's part of it."

at Montevago, Gibellina, with 7,000 inhabitants, was totally destroyed and so was the smaller town of Salaparuta. The major part of eight other towns was badly damaged.

The stricken area was a triangle whose corners are the towns of Salemi, Poggioreale and Santa Margherita di Belice. It is considered a Mafia stronghold.

Italian President Giuseppe Saragat scheduled a flight from Rome today for a first-hand look at the disaster area. Interior Minister Paolo Emilio Taviani toured the section Monday. Pope Paul VI sent what the Vatican called a "conspicuous" amount of aid money, and city and provincial councils throughout Italy set aside contributions for the homeless.

Some 2,000 firemen and soldiers have so far been dispatched to the island off the Italian boot. Convoys of airplanes, helicopters, trucks and ships made their way to Sicily all day with food, medicine, tents and clothing.

Five ships of the British Navy were en route with 1,000 blankets and supplies, and a Royal Air Force plane with doctors and attendants flew to the island.

U.S. officials advised the government they were prepared to transport tons of supplies if needed.

Medicare to Force Tax Increase

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - State Rep. George E. Nowotny Jr. of Fort Smith said Monday that "there is no way to get around a tax increase to finance the cost" of expanding the federal medical care program.

The expansion is mandatory. Nowotny, a Republican, said it would cost the state $12 million or more a year to match federal funds for the program.

The program will be expanded in 1970 to include all medically indigent persons regardless of their age. The program is now limited to persons 65 years of age and older.

Nowotny said the only alternative to a tax increase is for the state to forfeit about $24 million a year in federal funds currently being received for various medical programs. He called the alternative a "hideous" one.

Nowotny made the statement at a meeting of the Arkansas Legislative Council. The group responded by adopting a resolution calling for continuation of its study of the federal program and asking that the problems created by the present Medicare Act program be investigated by Congress.

Actors Back Anti-War Candidates

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) - Hollywood and Broadway actors are launching a drive to raise campaign funds for six senators and congressmen whose outspoken opposition to U.S. policy in Vietnam may threaten their chances for re-election in November.

Actor Paul Newman and his actress wife Joanne Woodward head a star-studded list of show business celebrities slated to participate in a fund-raising show Sunday night in New York for the Congressional Peace Campaign Committee.

Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, and Rep. William F. Ryan, D-N.Y., are national co-chairmen of the committee.

The drive is scheduled to be unveiled at a news conference here today by actors Tony Randall and Alan Arkin, and the senators and representatives whose campaigns warchests are to benefit from the committee's efforts.

They are Sens. Ernest Gruening of Alaska, and Wayne L. Morse of Oregon and Reps. George E. Brown Jr. and Phillip Burton, both of California and Ryan and John G. Dow, both of New York. All are Democrats.

Most face expected difficulty in winning re-election this year. Morse is already in a tough primary fight against former Rep. Robert B. Duncan, who announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination last month.

Sources said the Congressional Campaign Peace Committee is being formed for two reasons: The desire of actors who oppose the war to do something for congressmen who feel that way, and the belief some useful sources of funds will be unavailable to the politicians because of their outspoken war stand.

24 Counties in Regional Planning

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Commerce Secretary Alexander B. Trowbridge was presented a proposal for a new regional planning program Monday in Washington, accompanied by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's endorsement of the program.

The program would encompass 24 counties in Arkansas and counties in Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana.

The program, which is designed to increase economic development, would be known as the Mid-South Regional program and would involve federal, state and local governments in its planning.

Rockefeller set July 1 as the target date for the adoption and funding of a work program.

The Arkansas counties listed in the proposal are Calhoun, Greene, Craighead, Mississippi, Poinsett, Crittenden, Cross, St. Francis, Lee, Monroe, Phillips, Arkansas, Jefferson, Desha, Lincoln, Cleveland, Drew, Bradley, Chicot, Ashley, Calhoun, Columbia, Ouachita and Union.

Hopes Solons Won't Block Constitution

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Rep. Marion Crank of Foreman, chairman of the Arkansas Legislative Council, expressed hope Monday that a constitutional convention would not be hampered by the legislature.

"I don't want to limit their opportunity to consider anything they want to," Crank said of a convention. "I want to give them as broad a latitude as we can."

Crank made the statement before a five-member committee he appointed to study proposed legislation to implement the Constitutional Revision Study Commission's proposals. The legislation is to be introduced in a special session next month.

The commission favors allowing the electorate to vote in November on whether to hold a convention and to elect delegates at the same time.

A special House committee decided to take up the mechanics of calling a convention at a Friday afternoon meeting and refused to act on a proposal that it recommend either the referendum approach to calling a convention or ask the legislature to call one.

Dr. Robert A. Leflar, chairman of the study commission, told the committee that the process of calling a constitutional convention would be speeded up if the question of having a convention and the selection of delegates were placed on the same ballot.

"If the people vote 'no' then the whole thing should be called off," Leflar said. He added that a special election might enable special interest groups to influence the outcome.

House Speaker Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock said the realization "that some form of legalized authority must be enacted and an unescapable duty and prerogative of the legislature to exercise its best judgment about convention authorization" faces the legislature.

Pennsy and N.Y. Central to Merge

NEW YORK (AP) - The chief executive officers of the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroads say the U.S. Supreme Court's railroad merger approval opens the way for improvement of rail service in a vast region of the United States and Canada.

Stuart T. Saunders, chairman of the Pennsylvania, and Alfred E. Perlman, president of the Central, issued a joint statement hailing Monday's decision clearing the way for the merger of their railroads.

They also took note of improvements made possible by that part of the decision which approved Interstate Commerce Commission terms calling for the Norfolk & Western Railway, a prosperous coal-carrying road, to take over three smaller Eastern railroads - the Erie-Lackawanna, Delaware & Hudson and Boston & Maine.

In addition, Saunders and Perlman said the Penn-Central merger will make it possible to "extend early financial aid" to the bankrupt New Haven Railroad and to speed the New Haven's inclusion in the Penn-Central System.

"We will dedicate our efforts to the improvement of service in the 14 states and the two provinces of Canada which the new system will serve. As savings from the merger are realized, we will be able to make greater commitments to the modernization of our systems," they said.

doubts about the voters being asked to vote on the convention and the delegates.

Rep. Jack Oakes of Augusta said he feared the voters would be confused if they had to vote on the convention along with alternatives on controversial issues.

In other action, the council decided that a proposal by Rep. B. G. Hendrix of Fort Smith to conduct a study to determine if legislation is needed in the field of rights for law enforcement officers and members of the press needed more study.

The council approved a proposal that it receive any specific bills Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller has in mind regarding a study report submitted

They are two reasons why we find this interesting. One is the very fact that Rotarians would mention women in their publication makes it noteworthy and secondly... when they go so far as to even suggest a reason why women should not wear last year's dresses... that does it! NEW YORK (AP) — Pat Paulsen, the deadpan, double-talk editorialist on "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour," who specializes in satire, arrived in New York Monday to launch his noncandidate campaign for president—or any thing.

Paulsen's noncandidate will be announced formally on the CBS program Jan. 28.

"Some over-enthusiastic people are suggesting that I become involved," said Paulsen, toying thoughtfully with a cigarette. "But if nominated I don't think I'll run, and if elected, I don't think I'll serve."

"Clubs seem to be springing up in my behalf all over the country," he continued. "But although I am unable to say anything at this time, I am glad of an opportunity so early in my campaign to deny that I am running."

At this point Paulsen asked that any further quotations be attributed to either a "spokesman" or "a close associate."

A spokesman explained that the candidate would represent the "Straight Talking American Government party," or "Stag party." He said was being drawn up by "over-enthusiastic, unsolicited supporters."

"Let the rest of the country root hog," the spokesman concluded.

The STAG party's slogan—to be printed on its buttons—will be "We Can't Stand Pat—Paulsen for Prexy." And it will feature bumper stickers which will destroy themselves in three months.

And—seriously, folks, as they say in TV—the Paulsen for President put-on will be a big item on the comedy-variety show until early September when, after the two major parties have had their conventions, the STAG convention will be held on camera.

The noncandidate will reveal some of his noncampaigning plans Wednesday night on "The Johnny Carson Show"—if some other noncandidates don't get out an injunction against him before that.

Thursday night's 90-minute Bob Hope Christmas show will be unrolled without any commercials beyond the preliminary announcement about the name of the single sponsor presenting the program.

ABC has set Jan. 28 as the date to show the 1965 "Ship of Fools," which will run on a Sunday night for two hours and 45 minutes—from 9 p.m. to 11:45 EST, which means without very much editing.

African Heart Case Sees Kin

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—Heart transplant patient Philip Bialberg had a tearfully happy reunion with his 20-year-old daughter Jill in Groote Schuur hospital today.

Mrs. Bialberg arrived from Israel Monday night to see her father, who two weeks ago underwent the world's third human heart transplant. The girl is a student in Israel.

"I was a bit weepy," the smiling blonde girl said as she left the hospital. "We also had tears in his eyes. We grinned at each other like Cheshire cats. He looks marvelous. He's different—happy and healthy like the man I knew as a young girl."

Bialberg's heart disease had aged him considerably, but his wife and doctors have said he looks years younger since a new heart was grafted into his body Jan. 2.

A hospital bulletin said Bialberg's condition continues to be very satisfactory.

In Stanford, Calif., Mike Kasperak entered his 10th day with a new heart on an encouraging note, though remaining in critical condition.

"Kasperak's heart function continues to be satisfactory," said the latest Stanford University Medical Center Bulletin, issued Monday.

Greatest Year for Lady Cats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

No one can detract from the statement that this is the greatest year ever in the history of the Hope Lady Cats. The only thing that this writer dreads is the season's end itself.

It has been nothing short of a privilege for me to have been associated for two years now with the Lady Cats and their outstanding coach, Charlotte Gibson. For this season, from those opening two losses to Bradley, to the 61-60 conquest of the Bearettes last Thursday night; it has been shown to many that this Lady Cat squad is closer together emotionally than as sisters they could ever be.

Several times it has been brought up that a man coach could do more with a girls team, than a woman could. In many cases this would be true, but not at Hope High School, where Mrs. Gibson has her job earned for many, many years to come.

In her first year here, also her first out of college, the Lady Cats were comprised of a good crop of sophmores up from a better-than-average junior high team, and the few holdovers from Hope's state semifinals the year before. It was a building year, but names like Donna Byers, Carol Anthony, Gail Hartsfield, and Nellie Churchwell were already asserting themselves as starters on the Lady Cat team.

The biggest break came last year, when Guernsey High School was annexed into the Hope School District I-A. Guernsey, a school totally devoted to basketball, provided some fine roundballers, more notably for the Lady Cats being the sisters Coleman, forward Kathryn and guard Kay. They had started as sophs at Guernsey, and this allowed Coach Charlotte Gibson to start six juniors last year, including the returning four and the Colemans.

After a slow start the Lady Cats at last found themselves, in the Hope Christmas Tournament. They put together upset victories over Stamps, Kirby, and Stephens before falling in the finals to everybody's champion Bradley.

From that point forward the Lady Cats were world-beaters, sweeping the Gurdon Invitational and riding high, Midnight struck, however, in the district finals, as Ashdown beat down a spirited Lady Cat comeback to earn the state tourney berth 39-35. But already everyone was impatient for the '67-68 season to arrive.

After a 2-3 start through the first week of December, the Lady Cats have reached back to win 12 of 13 and thus be 14-4 on the year entering this week's Gurdon Invitational Tournament. But most anyone who follows the Lady Cats will agree that the season's turning point came in the University tourney back in December.

The Lady Cats were trailing undefeated Woodlawn 24-22 at the half, and from the first of the year something had been missing from the Lady Cats' play. In the second half, though, the Hope girls took command with an emotionally tight effort that resulted in the 52-45 win. Then Gibson's Girls came back the next morning and walked over a strong Stephens squad 61-35.

That night Bradley for the third time victimized the Lady Cats in skipping to the 63-50 final, but now Hope was ready to move.

Since then the Lady Cats have marched to six consecutive wins, with the greatest accomplishments being the revenge of the two teams who had beaten them earlier. First off, Carol Anthony's last-second 22-foot jump shot dethroned Ashdown 61-59, and I need not go into detail on the climax that put Shakespeare down: Hope 61, Bradley 60.

Now the Lady Cats begin their defense of the Gurdon get-together by meeting Chidester at 5:00 p.m., tomorrow afternoon. If the Lady Cats go all the way in the 16-team bracket, they will also play on Thursday at 5:30 p.m., Friday at 6:30 p.m., and in the finals on Saturday night.

title home to St. Louis.

Gibson said Monday he has turned down a contract mailed to him at his home in Omaha, Neb.

"I received a contract and I returned it," Gibson said in St. Louis. Gibson said General Manager Bing Devine offered a very generous settlement, but he added, "it wasn't even close to what I have in mind."

"It wasn't what I want. Under ordinary circumstances, it would have been plenty, but these aren't ordinary circumstances."

America May Support Wide Open Tennis

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The United States apparently is preparing to join the other major tennis-playing nations—Britain, France and Australia—in a giant power play to force open competition.

"These are the four countries who founded the International Lawn Tennis Federation," Robert Kellner of Los Angeles, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association told a press conference Monday.

"They are the only ones who have ever won the Davis Cup. If they stick together, they should carry the day."

The British, in a bold and rebellious move, already have announced that, effective April 22, they will abolish the distinction between amateurs and professionals, and stage the Wimbledon tournament as an open event.

The ILTF has warned that, if they do, the British will be suspended from all international competition and barred from the Davis Cup. The British say they're going ahead.

Meanwhile, there's considerable behind-the-scenes maneuvering in France, Australia and the United States.

"I have been going around the country talking to the various sectional associations," Kellner said. "The Texas and Western Associations are in favor of letting our players compete at Wimbledon. They oppose abolishing the distinction between amateurs and professionals."

"The Northern California Association (San Francisco) wants to go all the way with the British. I am here talking to the Eastern and New England Associations, the two biggest. I find many in favor of giving open tennis a chance."

However, Tennessee, Utah and New Mexico all gained ground. Tennessee moved up one notch to fourth after downing Vanderbilt and Georgia, Utah, winner over Arizona State and Arizona, also advanced one place to fifth, New Mexico, 14-0 after defeating Wyoming 81-65, rushed up from ninth to sixth.

St. Bonaventure, unbeaten in 12 games, remained in seventh place. The Bonnies beat DePaul 77-67 in their only outing last week.

Kentucky, upset by Florida, fell four places to eighth while Vanderbilt's loss to Tennessee dropped the Commodores one spot to No. 9, Columbia's Lions, 94-88 winners over Colgate for a 10-3 mark, are 10th, the same position they occupied a week ago.

Favor UCLA to Defeat Houston

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

There's no way of telling whether UCLA or Houston will win Saturday night's big game between the unbeaten college basketball giants in the Houston Astrodome. But it's an open secret that the Bruins are considered the superior team by most experts.

UCLA maintained a commanding lead in The Associated Press' latest weekly poll. The Bruins collected 32 first-place votes and 347 points in the balloting by a national panel of 35 sports writers and broadcasters.

Houston drew only three votes for the top position and 317 points, the latter on a basis of 10 points for a first-place vote, nine for second, eight for third, etc. The balloting was based on games through last Saturday.

The Bruins, who have won 46 games in a row, including 12 this season, play the University of Portland, Ore., at home Thursday night before their important meeting on the Cougars' court.

In last week's games, the Bruins beat California 94-64 and Stanford 75-63. Houston lifted its record to 16-0 by trouncing West Texas State, 98-53. The Cougars are idle until Saturday.

While the two top teams held their positions, there was some shifting among the other clubs in the first 10.

North Carolina, victorious over North Carolina State and Clemson last week, remained in the No. 3 spot.

However, Tennessee, Utah and New Mexico all gained ground. Tennessee moved up one notch to fourth after downing Vanderbilt and Georgia, Utah, winner over Arizona State and Arizona, also advanced one place to fifth, New Mexico, 14-0 after defeating Wyoming 81-65, rushed up from ninth to sixth.

St. Bonaventure, unbeaten in 12 games, remained in seventh place. The Bonnies beat DePaul 77-67 in their only outing last week.

Bo Rowland to Arkansas Hall of Fame

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. H. "Bo" Rowland was preparing to set up his law practice in Arkansas back in 1925 when Henderson Coach Jimmy Haygood informed him he could take over as coach at Henderson. He accepted Haygood's offer, however, and ultimately earned a niche in the Arkansas Hall of Fame. He will be inducted Thursday at Hot Springs along with Elmer Smith, Gene "Sodie" Davidson and Howard "Red" Hickey.

Rowland enjoyed six years of success at Henderson before crossing the Arkadelphia ravine and coaching Ouachita to a victory over his former team. He followed a year at Ouachita with assistant coaching jobs at Oklahoma, Syracuse and Cornell. Rowland took over the head job at The Citadel and returned from a hitch in the Navy as head coach at Oklahoma City University where his teams won 17 of 21 games during a two-year span.

Rowland progressed to George Washington University at Washington, D.C. and was so well-liked there that a clause in his contract prevented him from even talking to another school about a job.

Rowland's job at Washington led to his discovery as a banquet speaker by the Washington Touchdown Club.

"Washington columnist Francis Stann said of Rowland: 'On the banquet circuit he had the touch of a Will Rogers or a Herb Shriner. And, there were times that he seemed to be one of the best single wing coaches in football.'"

Rowland took a public relations job with an aluminum firm in 1951 and spent the last 13 years of his life tripping around the banquet circuit.

"I've made more than 1,500 talks," Rowland once said. "Just wait 'till I work up a subject."

Bing Top Scorer of ABA

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave Bing of the Detroit Pistons continues to lead the National Basketball Association in scoring, but Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati has the best per-game average, statistics released today by the league revealed.

Bing has 1,246 points in 45 games for a 27.7 mark while Robertson has 1,039 points in 35 games, a 29.7 average. Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia 76ers is second in points and has a 24.2 average.

Chamberlain leads in field-goal percentage with a .566 mark and in rebounds with 24.4 per game. Larry Siegfried of the Boston Celtics is tops in free-throw percentage at .862, while Lenny Wilkens of the St. Louis Hawks leads in assists with 7.9 per game.

Kentucky in Thick of SE Race

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats have clawed their way back into the rough-and-tumble Southeastern Conference basketball race.

Ahead for the Baron is a long trip down the country road—and what shapes up as the biggest scuffle in his 38-year Bluegrass reign.

Kentucky, shunted from fourth to eighth place in The Associated Press ratings this week after a 96-78 road loss to Florida, rebounded Monday night by thrashing Georgia 104-73 in a bruising SEC game.

The victory gave the Wildcats a 10-2 season record and a 4-1 mark in conference play. Moreover, it was Rupp's 770th coaching triumph—one short of the all-time NCAA record held by ex-Kansas wizard Phog Allen.

Rupp figures to catch Allen when Kentucky visits Auburn Saturday. But the magic 772nd victory could prove particularly elusive.

The Wildcats' next stops on a four-game road trip will be Knoxville, Tenn., where powerful Tennessee has rolled up 31 consecutive home-court victories, and Baton Rouge, La., where the Maravich family appears to have a dynasty in the making at Louisiana State.

"We've got 12 or 13 more games to go—and the road can be rough," Rupp said after torrid shooting by Thad Jaracz and sophomore Mike Casey swept the Wildcats to a surprisingly easy verdict over Georgia.

Fourth-ranked Tennessee remained unbeaten in the SEC and ran its over-all record to 10-1 with a 67-52 rompover visiting Florida and No. 9 Vanderbilt, only other nationally ranked team in action Monday night, topped Auburn 74-65 on the losers' floor for a 12-3 season mark.

Jaracz earned 12 of 16 field goal attempts and Casey 13 of 21 while totaling 25 and 29 points, respectively, in a rough game marked by an injury to one player and the ejection of another.

Kentucky soph Dan Issel was helped from the floor after being spilled by the Bulldogs' Ray Jeffords while driving for the basket. Minutes later, on a Georgia fast break, Jim Lemaster of Kentucky whacked Jeffords and was tossed out of the game.

Bob Lienhard, 6-foot-11 Georgia center, paced the visitors with 29 points—hitting 23 in the second half.

"We played a little basketball tonight," Rupp said. "I'd have settled for a one-point win. This game had me worried."

Tennessee's Tom Boerwinkle outscored Florida's Neal Walk 27-16 in a battle of 7-foot pivot-men and the Vols' 1-3-1 defense limited the tall Gator to four field goals in the second half.

Boerwinkle put in 21 points in the first half before getting into foul trouble. Walk, who brought a 27-point average into the game, got 13 before intermission but managed only three free throws thereafter.

Bob Bundy, a surprise starter at center, led Vanderbilt past the Tigers with 22 points and nine rebounds. Auburn rallied from a 36-23 halftime deficit and trimmed the Commodores' lead to four points with 25 seconds to play. But Bundy and Ken Campbell broke loose for the wrap-up baskets.

The Big Eight Conference produced a pair of tight finishes Kansas State nipping Colorado 57-56 in overtime and Missouri upending Kansas 67-66. Clemson edged Maryland 94-93 in a double overtime Atlantic Coast Conference struggle.

Washington State trounced Oregon 85-66 and Washington-trimmed Oregon State 68-56 in Pacific 8 Conference games; East Tennessee surprised Murray's Ohio Valley Conference leaders 74-67; Xavier, Ohio topped Detroit 84-81 and South Dakota stung Creighton 90-82.

Pure Oxygen Dropped for Space Probes

By LAWRENCE LEE
AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — Pressed for time, U.S. space officials begin testing "enriched air" Wednesday as a safer substitute for the pure oxygen atmosphere that fed the fire which killed three astronauts early last year atop their rocket at Cape Kennedy.

Pressed for money, the agency has junked a 1970 pure science research flight using secret reconnaissance photography techniques. The decision to scrap the flight was made Dec. 27 but acknowledged only Monday.

The atmosphere decision was reached Saturday by a board of space scientists named after the tragedy to assure the fire safety of future American spacecraft.

They acted after a dummy of the new, more fireproof Apollo command ship flunked five of 38 burn tests in which Manned Spacecraft Center engineers purposely short-circuited its wiring. Control panels, cables and soundproofing material blazed unacceptably.

Wednesday, testing resumes with the ship filled with a mix of 60 per cent oxygen and 40 per cent nitrogen, intended to keep overheated wiring from so easily triggering fires. The air we breathe is 78 per cent nitrogen, 21 per cent oxygen and the rest, traces of rare gases.

Pure oxygen is food for fire, but was used safely in pre-Apollo, Mercury and Gemini flights. NASA defended it strongly in the probe after the fatal blaze.

Oxygen requires less plumbing than a mix, making for a lighter spacecraft and simpler spacesuits.

The agency said Monday that "enriched air" is merely an option to its scientists, and that, in any case, spacecraft will be filled with pure oxygen, once in orbit. There, a fire could be put out instantly by letting the oxygen rush into the vacuum of space.

If the fire problems mean major changes in the Apollo design, they could delay delivery of the first model, to be flown this summer in America's first manned space venture since December, 1966. North American Rockwell Corp., its builder, is committed to deliver it March 15, although April or May delivery is more likely.

A delay past late spring could endanger NASA's intention to get Americans in space again after a 20-month pause, and the moon before the end of 1969.

The flight killed last month late in the planning stages was a mission devised to orbit pure science experiments.

Designated Apollo Applications Program Flight 14, its original missions included mapping the moon, photographing the earth and biology and astronomy experiments.

The moon mapping plan was dropped because the lunar orbiter program was so successful,

Public Works Freeze Is Lifted

By GORDON BROWN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson Administration has lifted a public works freeze it imposed last October on Army Engineer and Reclamation Bureau projects.

The freeze applied to construction contracts for new projects of the two agencies and to contracts for new features of projects already under way.

There was no official announcement that the freeze had ended but congressional committees were notified of the action Monday—opening day of the new session—and a Budget Bureau spokesman later confirmed it.

Congressional sources pointed out, however, that the two agencies, which are concerned chiefly with various types of water projects, still must live within financial limitations of a resolution Congress passed last year directing the administration to cut domestic spending $4.1 billion.

Congress demanded spending cuts as a condition of passage for President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge but that measure still hasn't cleared the House Ways and Means Committee.

In the case of the Army Engineers, the spending cut amounts to $67 million.

But relatively few projects actually were slowed down because winter is the slack season for construction. One Army Engineers official said "a lot of them wouldn't have got under way anyhow."

The spokesman said some savings did result from the three-month contract freeze. But he added this would not total $67 million and that further savings would be made through other contract delays.

While the construction freeze applied to virtually all federal agencies, the ending of the freeze applies only to the Army Engineers and the Reclamation Bureau, the Budget Bureau spokesman said.

WHY NOT "GO COLLECTIVE?"

Dear Helen: The girl I go with is kind of two-timing me, but she claims that it is more like one-and-one-half-timing. In short, she says she likes me but kind of half likes another boy.

What should I do?—TWO TIMED

Dear T.: ...Likewise! In short, "go collective"..... Which means you have a No. 1 choice, but you don't rule out Numbers 2, 3, and 4—and your girl has the same privilege, without jealousy hang-ups.

"Going collective" was suggested by a boy several months ago. According to my mail, it's catching on. Too bad he didn't send his name. He might have gone down in history as the guy who named the successor to "going steady."

WR Installs New Prison Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller filled out the five-member state Penitentiary Board Monday with four appointments, one a Negro, and the board predictably appointed Thomas O. Merton permanent prison superintendent.

Rockefeller appointed W. L. Currie, 47, a Negro of Osceola; W. P. Lytle, 44, of Clarksville; Dr. W. Peyton Kolb, 47, of Little Rock and Marshall Neil Rush, a Pine Bluff farmer.

The board followed through on a previous Rockefeller request by calling for a management audit of the state prison system.

The governor urged the board to implement a penitentiary study commission report presented him last month. He said he hoped the new board would attempt to solve the problems connected with the planning for the future of the system.

Rush will succeed R. E. Jeter of Wabbaseka—whose term expired Sunday—and will serve until Jan. 14, 1973. The other three appointees will replace board members who resigned recently after disagreeing with Rockefeller over the naming of Merton as superintendent.

The new board immediately named John Haley of Little Rock, a Rockefeller appointee, as chairman. The four appointments gave Rockefeller control of his first major board.

"This is a red-letter day, probably one that won't be repeated in my term as governor," Rockefeller said.

Kolb, a psychiatrist, will fill the term of former Chairman Jeff Wood of Cabot, whose term expires in 1971. Currie, a farmer and teacher, will complete the term of Grady Woolley of El Dorado that expires in 1970, and Lytle, a minister, will fill the term of L. M. Greene of Sileam Springs that expires next year.

Rockefeller said he felt that the time involved in the board's function as a pardons and paroles board has probably overshadowed the time spent running the penitentiary and that he wanted the new board to devote more time to the actual handling of the prison.

Greek Leftist to U.S.

PARIS (AP) — Leftist Greek political leader Andreas Papandreu arrived in exile from Greece today and said he "no doubt will go on to the United States."

"Whether I will go to Washington, go back to teaching, or what, I cannot say now," said Papandreu. "I will be able to tell you in a few days."

Papandreu, 48-year-old son of ex-Premier George Papandreu, was arrested when the military junta seized control of the government last April 21. He was released on Christmas Eve after promising to live quietly and make no statements to newsmen.

Andreas had been the chief target of the military coup. Rightist military leaders accused him of leading a leftist plot to take Greece out of the North Atlantic alliance and feared his father's party would win the elections that were to have been held in May.

He was accompanied to Paris by his wife, the former Margaret Chant of Chicago, three of their children, and his mother. His oldest son went to the United States last week to visit his mother's family in Chicago.

Andreas was hospitalized overnight early this month after a fainting spell.

Papandreu came to the United States in 1940, took a doctorate in economics at Harvard, became an American citizen and got a commission in the U.S. Navy. After the war he taught at Harvard, the University of Minnesota, Northwestern and for six years at the University of California in Berkeley.

He returned to Greece in 1961 and resumed his Greek citizenship in 1964 when he won a seat in Parliament and became his father's chief aide. But his wife and their children are still U.S. citizens.

Vietnam Plan Told by Romney

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer
KEENE, N.H. (AP) — Gov. George Romney says he has discussed his proposal for guaranteed neutralization of all Vietnam with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, and reports the Russian leader expressed interest but made no commitment on the plan.

"If I'm elected president this is the thing that will get my immediate attention, and I'll push it as hard as I can," Romney said in outlining his Vietnam program Monday night.

The Republican governor said later in an interview that he raised the proposal during his meeting with Kosygin on Dec. 19 in Moscow.

The governor would not discuss the Moscow conversation in detail, but he said Kosygin expressed interest.

Pressing his presidential primary campaign in Muscoville today, Romney proposed a ceiling on federal spending and "a reasonable tax increase" to move the federal government toward a balanced budget in 1970.

He said that is a crucial step to combat inflation.

"Therefore, I propose a 10 per cent spending ceiling fiscal 1969 to limit the level of total federal nondefense expenditures at not more than the 1965 level," he said in a prepared speech.

"With this spending ceiling in effect, I believe a reasonable tax increase should be approved, both as a measure to

Finace to Be Easier on Housing

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The housing and home mortgage industries have apparently weathered the first money crisis of the new year and leaders report no evidence the 1966 housing recession will be repeated in 1968.

But industry sources said the potential home-buyer can expect to pay high interest rates throughout the year although some slight reduction is anticipated if Congress raises taxes and cuts federal spending.

They don't foresee interest rates dropping below the six per cent level—a point surpassed in early 1966—in any event.

The industry optimism stems in part from preliminary reports indicating the nation's savings and loan associations—the largest single source of home loan money—escaped a possible large withdrawal of savings early this month.

Economists both in and out of government had feared savers might withdraw money from their accounts in early January for investments paying a higher interest rate.

The turn of the year was the key time since it marked the end of one investment period and the start of another. A saver could collect a dividend on his account at that time and then withdraw the money, thus reducing the amount available for mortgage loans.

The reduced level of deposits in 1966 shrank the amount of mortgage money and gave the housing industry one of its worst years since World War II.

Exact figures on S&L savings won't be available until next month but some industry sources say they foresee the chance of a net gain rather than a decline for January.

The National League of Insured Savings Associations called the early-January experience "better than expected" while a housing industry source called it "very, very favorable."

War Marks Anniversary of Coup

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Nigeria's military rulers spent the second anniversary today of their Jan. 16 coup fighting a civil war which threatens to become bloodier.

Maj. Gen. Yakubu Gowon, 33, head of the federal military government, two weeks ago targeted March 31 as the date for the end of the six-month war against the rebellious regime of Lt. Col. C. Odumelegu Ojukwu, 34, in eastern Nigeria.

Ojukwu declared the region independent last May 30 and named it Biafra. Federal troops invaded in July to end the secession.

Gowon and his field commanders decided a month ago to step up the war, which according to some unofficial estimates has caused 100,000 casualties. No official figures have been released, but it is believed civilian and military dead total about 23,000.

The last major victory for federal troops was in mid-October, the capture of the river port of Calabar, in southeast Biafra. Since then the war has been stalemated.

There are signs of a federal buildup to trap Biafrans between troops advancing across the Niger River from the north and a sea offensive aimed at Port Harcourt, a major city and the depot for air shipments of arms to the Biafrans.

But the Biafrans are reported recruiting white mercenaries, including many French, with the help of Bob Denard, the former mercenary commander in the Congo. Federal officials last week displayed the body of a white man they said was killed at Parrot Island, three miles from Calabar. They said he carried a French map of the Calabar Channel.

Federal officials say they will negotiate with the Biafrans on condition they end the secession.

Opening lead—♥ K

When the king lead indicates either ace-king or king-queen, the ambiguity isn't going to hurt you often but it will hurt occasionally.

West has a normal opening lead of the king of hearts against the four spade contract. If South takes his ace right away, West will have no further problems. South is going to wind up losing two clubs and two hearts providing that East and West don't do something silly later on.

Therefore, South is going to let West hold that first heart trick. If West continues the suit, South will have executed a successful Bath Coup (named after the resort of Bath, England, where some whist player is supposed to have made this play in the early part of the 19th century) and will make two heart tricks and his contract.

If East and West are playing the old-fashioned lead of king from either ace-king or king-queen, East is going to play his nine of hearts as a come-on. He will want West to continue with the ace and another heart to give a ruff. West may be smart enough to shift to some other suit, but West is more likely to continue on the assumption that East's play of the nine was from ace-nine-deuce and not from nine-deuce.

If East knows definitely that his partner has led from king-queen and not from ace-king, he will play the deuce of hearts. West may still continue the suit. Players don't always follow signals. But if he does it will be in spite of East's play not because of it.

Furthermore, it is perfectly possible that a smart West player would shift to a diamond after his king of hearts held the first trick and a nine spot signal by his partner.

Everyone makes good plays; everyone makes bad plays. All we know is that it is a lot easier for East and West to find the correct defense if East knows that West does not hold the ace of hearts than if East has to guess.

Find and Avoid Cause For Best Eczema Relief
By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What causes atopic dermatitis? Is it hereditary? What can be done for it?
A—This is another name for eczema. The cause is an allergy to a food or to something that comes in contact with your skin. Of the foods, wheat is the most common offender. Of the chemical contactants, scented soaps, shaving creams, shampoos and deodorants are frequent causes. This type of allergy is often aggravated by exposure to sunlight. Heredity is an added factor in the cause of many allergies. The best and most lasting relief depends on discovering and avoiding the cause. It often takes some expert medical sleuthing to find the offender. For temporary relief, ointments that contain coal tar, iodochlorhydroxyquin and hydrocortisone are often helpful.

Q—I am a woman of 60. My doctor says I have eczema in my ears. Can this be cured? Will it affect my hearing?
A—When eczema is limited to a small area, such as the ears, the search for the cause is simplified. In some women, their earrings contain the allergen or irritant. Once the cause is found, the steps necessary for a cure become self-evident. In any case, the eczema will not cause deafness but, if it extends into the external ear canal, the crusts produced may cause blocking and temporary loss of hearing.

Q—My wife has eczema. Two doctors have prescribed pills which stop the itching but, if she doesn't take them, the itching comes back. Would herbs help her?
A—She'd better stay with the pills. Many herbs have been used at one time or another to treat diseases but I know of none that will relieve eczema.

Q—I have heard that people with allergy cannot take tetanus shots. What can they take instead?
A—If a person who has not had tetanus toxoid gets this disease he must be given the antitoxin. If he is allergic to horse serum, an antitoxin made with human serum can be used. Allergic reactions to booster injections of tetanus toxoid have been reported when the dose used was larger than necessary. For this reason, authorities in preventive medicine recommend that a small booster be given every 10 years instead of every year. If an allergic reaction is anticipated, the doctor stands by with antihistaminics.

There were 81,253 local governments in the United States at the beginning of 1967, a decrease of almost 10,000 since 1962, reports The World Almanac. The decrease came mainly in the number of school districts, which dropped from 34,678 in 1962, to 21,782 in 1967. This reduction of over one-third was predominantly the result of widespread school reorganization and consolidation for reasons of efficiency.

First Negro Is Named to Prison Board

By PETE YOUNG
Associated Press Writer
OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — The first Negro ever to serve on the Arkansas Penitentiary Board stepped into the post Monday totally unaware of prison problems and oblivious to politics, but with the idea he could add something vital to the state prison system.

W. L. Currie, 44, an Osceola farmer and vocational teacher, said the only reason he could understand his being appointed to the board "was my background in vocational training."
"I haven't given it (race) any consideration," he said. "Naturally, I felt it an honor to be named to the board, but not just as a Negro."

Currie, who is a vocational teacher at Rosenwald High School here, was named to the board Monday along with Dr.

W. Payton Kolb, 47, a Little Rock psychiatrist, Dr. William P. Lytle, 44, of Clarksville, and Marshall Neil Rush, 36, a Pine Bluff farmer.
Currie said he had not thought about being appointed to such a board nor did he have any first-hand knowledge of prison conditions, but said he felt that there was a definite place for him on the board.

Currie said he felt he could work with Murton in possibly setting up vocational classes aimed at rehabilitation.

Divorce Bail

Janet and Ed knew that his mother was none too happy about their marriage. Yet they were both dismayed to learn, after her death, that she had left money to Ed strictly on condition that he get a divorce.

In short order they challenged the validity of this clause in court. There, the executor of the estate argued:

"It was the mother's money, to do with as she pleased. If Ed doesn't want to accept it on her terms, he is free to refuse it—and stay married to Janet."

However, the court ruled that Ed could collect his bequest without getting a divorce. The judge said that, as a matter of public policy, the law frowns on any device that is so clearly "hostile to the marriage relation."

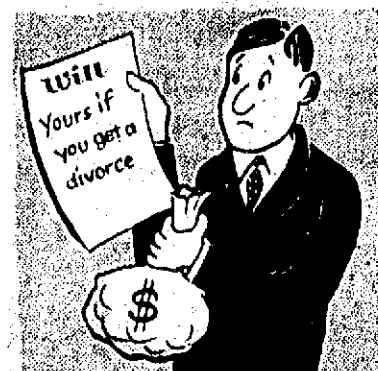

It is a general rule that the law is biased in favor of matrimony. This kind of effort to break up a marriage, by using a bequest as "divorce bait," is usually held null and void.

Nevertheless, an anti-marriage clause might be upheld if, under the particular circumstances, its impact is relatively slight. For example:

A mother left money to her daughter, payable only if she got a divorce. But it also appeared that the daughter was already separated from her husband, and that a divorce suit was pending.

Upholding the terms of the bequest, the court pointed out that in this situation there was not much marriage left to preserve.

What if the bail has the opposite purpose: to keep the child married, rather than to get him divorced? In one case, for instance, the will gave a son his bequest only if he remained married for a certain period. He sued to knock out this requirement, complaining that it would force him to stay married no matter how much his wife might misbehave.

But the court held that the son would indeed have to give up his right to divorce, at least for the specified time, if he wanted to collect the bequest.

The judge felt that society has less reason to protect the institution of divorce than to protect the institution of marriage.

Threat of City Sales Tax Lies Ahead

Hope and its eight sister cities owning either their electric generating plants or distribution systems are financially well off and may not realize how imminent is the threat of legislation authorizing municipal sales taxes.

But last week-end Glenn Zimmerman, director of the Arkansas Municipal League, said he was confident the special session of the legislature scheduled next month will enact permissive legislation if Gov. Rockefeller will include it in his call.

There will be pressure from the non-municipal-plant cities to include a sales tax bill in the call, you had better believe. With more and more of Arkansas' population moving into the cities the budget demands upon city government obviously outrun the income of property taxes and present state "turnbacks".

Hope and its sister municipal-plant towns don't feel the general crisis, but it's there just the same.

If I were a citizen of a non-municipal-plant city I believe I would support permissive legislation for a sales tax. But Hope having electric plant revenues I would oppose enacting such a tax here.

The proposed legislation would not in itself enact a city sales tax. But it would authorize the local voters to enact one if they chose to do so.

Texas and Louisiana have such a permissive law. And more than a dozen Texas cities have enacted local sales tax in local referendums. No doubt this is ahead for many Arkansas cities, too.

Conway Man Opposed to Mixed Drinks

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—State Rep. J. C. Dawson of Conway said today that neither Hot Springs, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller nor anyone else could persuade him to vote for a mixed drink bill.

The Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce has prepared a bill to legalize the sale of mixed drinks for on-premise consumption in hotels, restaurants, private clubs and cocktail lounges. Rockefeller has told backers of the bill that he must be assured the bill would pass before he will include it in the special legislative session.

Dawson said Rockefeller lost support at Hot Springs after vetoing a gambling bill in the regular session of the legislature.

State's Mineral Production Drops

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Department of the Interior's Bureau of Mines reported Monday that the value of Arkansas' 1967 mineral output decreased about $8 million compared to the output in 1966.

The report placed the value of the state's 1967 production at $182.1 million. The value of the crude oil decreased $6.1 million. Losses in the production of sand and gravel, kaoline and other fire clays, stone and bauxite were also reported.

The report said substantial increases were noted in the production of bromine and natural gas.

AP Broadcast Head Lions Club Speaker

GARY SYVER

Gary Syver, President of Arkansas Associated Press Broadcasters, spoke to the Hope Lions Monday at the weekly luncheon at the Town & Country.

Mr. Syver of El Dorado, news director of KTVE, channel 10, was presented by Lion Haskell Jones, program chairman for the week.

World wide there are eighty five hundred AP members which consist of newspapers, radio and television stations. In the United States there are seventeen hundred and fifty newspaper members and twenty-six hundred radio and television station members.

Among many interesting things Mr. Syver told the club was the fact that five million words daily were transcribed over a network of four hundred and seventy-five thousand miles of wire.

The yearly expense of operating the news service is fifty million dollars or almost one million dollars a week.

News editors have to decide all day long on the importance or priority of news going out over the wires. The priority classifications are in the following order: (1) Flash, (2) Bulletin, (3) Urgent, (4) Mildly interesting.

In the past seven years Mr. Syver said that only the shooting of President Kennedy has rated a flash.

In closing Mr. Syver said that the effectiveness of the AP news service depended on its great spread and the cooperation of members who exchanged news items.

Bro. Gerald Trussell pastor of the First Baptist Church, was the guest of Lion W. L. Tate, Bro. Roy Chatham, Minister of Music & Education First Baptist Church, was the guest of Lion Hubert Thrash and Bob Morton, new owner of Nunn-Pentecost Motor Co. was guest of Lion David Brown.

Ambush Is Broken Up, 40 Cong Die

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP)—Viet Cong soldiers killed 14 South Vietnamese in a fantry men and wounded 32 in their third ambush of the day Monday, but the guerrillas caught up with the Vietnamese eight hours later and killed 40, South Vietnamese headquarters reported.

The South Vietnamese were ambushed in the coastal lowlands 357 miles northeast of Saigon, while U.S. troops reported two ambush attempts on American supply convoys 75 miles apart in the central highlands.

U.S. spokesmen said 37 Communists and three Americans were killed in the two clashes, and 23 Americans were wounded. They said damage to the convoys was light.

The South Vietnamese infantry company was on a road-opening mission when the guerrillas pounced on it. A battalion of South Vietnamese reinforcements, backed up by armored personnel carriers, chased the Viet Cong.

Besides killing 40 guerrillas, the pursuers reported capturing nine weapons. They said one of their men was killed and two were wounded.

South Vietnamese headquarters also reported that last week was one of the bloodiest of the war for government troops, with 357 soldiers killed, 946 wounded and 110 missing or captured.

The high casualties resulted from a Communist offensive that began just after the New Year's truce.

Many of the casualties were militiamen, hit when guerrillas attacked outposts.

The government also reported 2,216 Communist soldiers were killed last week, 605 by government troops and 1,611 by American and other allied forces. U.S. weekly casualty figures will not be announced until Thursday.

U.S. Command reported one other firefight Monday, a 25-minute clash 59 miles northwest of Saigon and nine miles from the Cambodian frontier. Four men of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division were killed and 29 wounded.

Although the intention is to leave the Far East by 1971, Wilson said his government was prepared to continue aiding Britain's Commonwealth partners in Southeast Asia through a "joint air defense system for Malaysia and Singapore."

Wilson announced cancellation of a contract to purchase 50 American F-111 swing-wing bombers at a cost of $1.02 billion.

The prime minister was grim faced as he rose in the House of Commons to announce details of the Labor government's drive to make Britain solvent.

Russia Gets Naval Base in Adriatic

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Yugoslavia has given the Russians a naval base at the Adriatic port of Split to help shore up President Gamal Abdel Nasser's regime, the Israeli newspaper daily Maariv reported today.

The paper's Paris correspondent said reliable foreign sources reported the agreement between President Tito and Soviet leaders has been kept secret, but observers have noted that Soviet warships sail regularly between Split and Egyptian ports.

The agreement was reached shortly before the Egyptians sank the Israeli destroyer Elath with a Soviet-built missile boat on Oct. 21, the paper said.

Maariv said its sources reported many Yugoslav leaders were critical of Tito's move, fearing it might threaten their independence from the Soviet Union.

At least three Soviet warships and submarines now dock regularly at Split, the report said, and housing and clubs have been opened for Soviet seamen.

Meanwhile, in the Gaza Strip near El Arish Monday night, an Israeli tank truck ran over an antivehicle mine, the Israeli army said in Tel Aviv. The blast damaged the truck and injured its driver, and a search was on today for the saboteurs responsible.

Britain Cuts Arms, Social Expenditures

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson announced today the withdrawal of all British armed forces from the Far East and the Persian Gulf by the end of 1971.

Unfolding his austerity program before the House of Commons, he also announced a campaign to slash benefits in social welfare.

Although the intention is to leave the Far East by 1971, Wilson said his government was prepared to continue aiding Britain's Commonwealth partners in Southeast Asia through a "joint air defense system for Malaysia and Singapore."

Wilson announced cancellation of a contract to purchase 50 American F-111 swing-wing bombers at a cost of $1.02 billion.

The prime minister was grim faced as he rose in the House of Commons to announce details of the Labor government's drive to make Britain solvent.

Johnson to Quit Party Leadership

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Jim Johnson, the 1966 Democratic gubernatorial nominee, implied here Monday night that he was withdrawing from leadership in the state Democratic party.

Johnson told the Pine Bluff Jaycees he "knew damn well" that Democratic politicians in the state did not need him to lead the party back into power.

"Politicians have never needed me, but it was encouraging to know they didn't need (former Gov. Orval) Faubus," Johnson said. "They've always leaned on him."

Johnson was asked if his statement meant he was withdrawing from Democratic leadership.

"I suppose it does," he answered.

Several Democratic legislators have said recently that the party would benefit if Faubus and Johnson would step aside and allow new leadership to emerge.

George Wallace for president, said that Wallace could capture the presidency because both major political parties solicit the vote of the minorities rather than the masses, Johnson said.

Johnson said he expected Wallace to visit Arkansas next month and expressed hope that a rally could be staged at Little Rock.

Laotians Retreat as Reds Attack

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Two thousand Laotian government troops are believed to have fled before advancing Communist forces in the strategic Nam Bac valley in northern Laos, government sources said today.

No report has been received from the three government battalions since Sunday, when the government ordered the village of Nam Bac and its airstrip abandoned.

Some of the government troops have straggled into the Royal Laotian capital, Luang Prabang, which was mortared by the Communists Sunday night. It is 50 miles south of Nam Bac.

A general and two colonels were sent north to assess the situation.

Nam Bac, which government forces captured from the Pathet Lao in July 1966, had been under heavy artillery attack for several weeks.

Meanwhile, the government gave a further report on a Communist air attack last Friday. It had reported earlier that two Communist planes were shot down.

A government communique said four North Vietnamese AN-2 Colt biplanes bombed and strafed a village of the Mao tribe at Muong Yut, killing four civilians and wounding many others. It said machine gun and rifle fire brought down two of the planes well within Laotian territory.

One plane was destroyed and the other contained three bodies, two in North Vietnamese uniform and one mutilated beyond recognition, the communique said. A map found in the plane was in Vietnamese, it added.

Trouble Is Ahead for Congress

By JACK BELL

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—The newly reconvened Congress appears headed for another debate on U.S. bombing of North Vietnam in the wake of a nonpartisan group's assessment that U.S. air attacks offer no "cut-rate route to victory."

As the 90th Congress reassembled Monday for its second session, the group that includes former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and retired Army Gen. Omar N. Bradley said the military effectiveness of the bombing was overrated—while contending it is not the obstacle to peace talks its critics contend.

A march to Capitol Hill by some 3,000 women opposing U.S. participation in Vietnam also focused congressional attention on the war.

A number of congressmen were quick to react to the statement on U.S. bombing by the Citizens Committee for Peace and Freedom in Vietnam. A special panel of the committee, which included Eisenhower, Bradley, former Illinois Sen. Paul H. Douglas and former Harvard President James B. Conant, said:

"Bombing is a military tool which supports and helps protect America's fighting men now committed in Vietnam. However, bombing is only one of America's weapons. It is not a panacea—it is not a cure-all. It is not a cut-rate route to victory."

The group concluded the beginning of any extended pause in air attacks "must be promptly followed by Hanoi's cessation of sending men and materials into the South and any firing from the North upon our fighting men."

President Johnson has made clear the United States would expect reciprocal action if it calls off the air attacks. Nguyen Duy Trinh, North Vietnam foreign minister, has said that if the bombing is halted Hanoi "will hold peace talks" but has not pledged any slowdown in the Communist war effort.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk moved Monday to assure South Vietnam's leaders that the United States will make no decision on peace negotiations without consulting them, and will not try to impose a coalition government in Saigon.

Rusk's statement, read to newsmen by State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey, came on the heels of a Saigon speech in which President Nguyen Van Thieu indirectly told the United States to avoid peace efforts in which it did not have the full consent of the South Vietnamese government.

McCloskey said the State Department is carefully studying the Trinh statement.

Nuclear Ship Visit Stirs Jap Leftists

TOKYO (AP)—The U.S. nuclear-powered aircraft carrier Enterprise may be delayed a day or two, but she will definitely visit Japan this week, informed sources said today.

With leftist students gathering at Sasebo by the hundreds to demonstrate against the Enterprise's visit, a Japanese government spokesman said earlier there was a chance the 75,000-ton ship might postpone her visit. Other sources said later in the day the ship, originally expected Thursday, may be delayed until Friday or Saturday but definitely will come.

The Enterprise reportedly ran into rough seas off the Bonin Islands, in the Western Pacific, Masashi Ishibashi, chairman of the Socialist party's executive committee, said the Enterprise was delaying her arrival at Sasebo "because she is afraid of the demonstrations opposing her visit."

Leftist students were pouring into the Sasebo area to await the arrival of the carrier, which had been expected Thursday with the nuclear-powered frigates Truxton.
